

Nature of prophethood:

- ↳ Individuals through whom Almighty Allah provided his teachings.
- ↳ Prophethood is God given and it can't be earned through any means.

We sent our revelations to you [O Prophet!] the way We sent [them] to Noah and to the prophets who came after him; And We revealed [them] to Abraham, Ishmael, Isaac, Jacob, the progeny of Jacob, Jesus, Job, Jonah, Aaron, Solomon and We gave the Psalms to David. We have sent revelations to Messengers who we have mentioned to you earlier and to some Messengers who We have not mentioned to you and with Moses God had spoken, the way one speaks: these Messengers who were sent as bearers of glad tidings and of admonishment so that after them people are left with no excuse which they can present before God, and God is Mighty and Wise. (4:163-165)

Purpose:

- ↳ They are selected for the purpose of communication with Allah.
- ↳ This is done in 3 ways:
 1. Communication from behind a veil → Through dreams, visions
 2. Through an Angel
 3. Direct revelation → Directly without any intermediary

And it is not the status of any mortal that God should speak to him except by revelation or from behind a veil or He sends a messenger and through His permission, he sends revelation to him of what He wills. Exalted is He, and Wise. (42:51)

Authenticity of prophethood:

- ↳ The authenticity of prophethood can be established through several key aspects. Following are three most fundamentals:

1. His Character:

- ↳ Muhammad (s.w.s) lived Makkah for 40 years. He lived in a small town. So, people knew closely & trusted him & relied on him.

- ↳ At beginning of his mission, he addressed the people of Makkah on mount safa & asked them, "If I were to claim that there is an army of enemies behind this hill ready to attack you, would you believe me?". They all replied in 'Yes'.

↳ He then told them that he was a prophet of Allah.

↳ He was known as the 'Al-Sadiq' & 'Al-Amin'. They trusted him with his valuables despite being his enemies.

If Allah had so willed I should not have recited it to you nor would He have made it known to you. I lived among you a whole lifetime before it (came to me). Have you, then no sense? (10:16)

2. His Message:

↳ A true prophet brings a consistent message that does not evolve with time.

a. Consistency:

↳ Human beings are inconsistent as they are always learning and improving however the Quran is consistent.

b. Way of Preservation:

↳ People memorized it. No other text that claims to be Quran.

A contradiction bible or Torah is explained by a Jew or Christian as mistake by the authors.

Had this Quran been from somebody other than Allah, you would certainly have found therein a lot of inconsistency. (4:82)

b. Illiteracy of prophet:

↳ In the treaty of Hudaibiyah, the title of ^{agreement was} "It is an agreement b/w Quraish of Makkah & Muhammad the messenger of Allah"

↳ The Quraish objected to this to inclusion of "messengers of Allah" as the reason for conflict & (PBUH) agreed

↳ Ali (RA) was hesitant to remove so prophet (PBUH) asked Ali (RA) to show him where it was written so that he could erase it.

↳ This is further proof that prophet (PBUH) was unlettered, yet he produced a book of unparalleled eloquence.

O Prophet!, you did not use to study any book before its revelation. Nor you used to write with your hands. Had that been the case, there would have been a reason for these liars to dispute. (29:48)

c. Scientific proof:

↳ Maurice Bucaille, a French scientist, admitted that he would not find a single verse from the Quran that was clearly against the latest discoveries.

↳ Infact, he said that it helped him gain more knowledge about the physical world.

↳ Kenneth L. Moore, an embryologist said that there are eighty some passages detailing the process of human production.

↳ Many of which were recently discovered at that time.

↳ Some of the facts mentioned by the Quran cannot be seen through naked eye.

d. Case of pharaoh:

↳ For 1300 years there was no trace of the body of pharaoh

↳ In 19th century, the body was found & returned to Egypt to be displayed.

↳ This proved Quran's prophecy that the body will be discovered as a sign for mankind.

e. Quran is a book Guidance

↳ The Qur'an is meant to guide people, not to teach science, but when it talks about nature, its descriptions match modern discoveries. Since both the Qur'an and science come from God, they cannot truly contradict each other. This shows that faith and science can go together.

3. Prophecies:

↳ Many of prophets that came, their arrival was prophesied by those that came before them.

↳ They don't come as a surprise, instead, they come in an environment where the religiously knowledgeable people were eagerly awaiting them.

↳ Books before Quran foretold the arrival of the last prophet.

↳ Old testament from the book of Deuteronomy said

/ I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their brothers.

↳ refers to moses

↳ refers to brothers
of bani-israel which is bani israel

↳ People say this is referring to Jesus but there are many differences b/w Hazrat Isa and Hazrat Musa (P.A):

Hazrat Musa

1. Natural Birth
2. Married
3. Performed Migration
4. Natural death

Hazrat Isa

1. Miracle birth
2. Remained unmarried
3. Never migrated
4. Lifted from earth

↳ The prophet (PBUH) is most similar to Hazrat Musa.

↳ "I will put my words...."

In John 1:19-22, Jewish leaders questioned John the Baptist about his identity, asking if he was the Christ (Messiah), Elijah, or "the Prophet." He denied being any of them. This shows that the Jews were expecting three figures.

↳ Salman farsi recognized the truth of Islam after a journey of seeking truth.

When they listen to that which has been revealed unto the messenger, you see their eyes overflow with tears because of their recognition of the Truth. They say: Our Lord, we believe, so write us down as among the witnesses [who have acknowledged the arrival of the Prophet]. (5:83)

Importance of obeying the prophet

↳ The Quran has emphasized the importance of obeying the prophets

He who obeys the Prophet, in fact obeyed God, (4:80)

Tell them: "If you love God, follow me; God will love you and forgive your sins and [you know this well that] God is Most-Forgiving and Ever-Merciful." (3:31)

And whichever Messenger We sent forth, was sent so that he be obeyed by God's directive. (4:64)

Sunnah:

↳ It is only the religious actions of Prophet (PBUH)

for example,

↳ Once Prophet (PBUH) saw that farmers were using polination to help in good harvest, he commented that he thought they were not helpful.

↳ So, people stopped using it and the harvest that year was not good.

↳ Seeing this, Prophet (SAW) said to only follow his religious commands as they know worldly matters better than him.
